If you care about Stephen Harper giving China a veto over our democracy for 31 years in the FIPA sellout, tune into Politics, Re-Spun radio on Coop Radio tonight at 6pm Vancouver time to listen to federal Green Party leader Elizabeth May tell us what kind of despotism Harper has in store for us all. Then stick around for the rest of the show; see below.

Tune in on 100.5fm in the Vancouver area, or click on the livestream at <http://CoopRadio.org>.

Some background on FIPA is at the Green Party website, at the Council of Canadians website, at the Montreal Gazette, and at the NDP website.

Topics tonight:

1. Elizabeth May on FIPA and the federal by-elections
2. Stuart Parker on the re-launch of the Vancouver Chapter of Fair Vote Canada
3. Khaled Barakat on the latest round of attacks on Gaza
