Join Alex and Kevin for some commentary - or possibly internet French lessons - during the French leaders' debate tonight, at about 7:45pm eastern / 4:45pm pacific.

Commentary may be a mix between French and English - or maybe some Franglais thrown in for fun - so feel free to join us in whichever language you'd wish.

Update: thanks to everyone who participated! At the end of it all, we had more than 1,100 viewers and over 600 participants in the liveblog. Absolutely stellar. If you have any ideas on more live events we could do, leave a comment. Also - tell us your thoughts on the debate! You can find archived video on cbc.ca/video.
