

Reports from Haiti by CUPE and the Red Cross

by Stephen Elliott-Buckley - Wednesday, May 19, 2010

<http://politicsrespun.org/2010/05/reports-from-haiti-by-cupe-and-the-red-cross/>

Claude Genereux, Secretary-Treasurer of CUPE, Canada's largest union, shares his impressions on where Haiti is at 4 months after their devastating earthquake, which compounded the neoliberal economic earthquake Canada and others have been perpetrating on Haiti for decades.

Saddest for me is the lack of time and opportunity for children to play. This is why we have Clowns Without Borders.

Here is a brief, yet expansive report from the Canadian Red Cross. There are more details at the Canadian Red Cross Haiti page. Hurricane season is coming. We need to keep building relationships to restore and enhance stability compared to where they were before.