

We Must Completely Obliterate the BC Liberal Party

by Stephen Elliott-Buckley - Friday, January 22, 2016

<http://politicsrespun.org/2016/01/we-must-completely-obliterate-the-bc-liberal-party/>

The provincial government has told the Vancouver School Board it will not fund any more seismic upgrades unless it agrees to close schools.

Source: Some parents fuming over BC Ministry of Education decision - NEWS 1130

What kind of premier threatens to withhold seismic upgrading funds until the school board closes schools?

What kind of person does that.

Is it blackmail? A slow motion hostage-taking?

What kind of analogy could you come up with to rationalize this?

I'm at a loss.

This is a new level of disturbing, even for the BC Liberals.

So. Go read the title again.