There is some great art/electronic music coming out of Canada lately.

Lights seems to be quite well known. Grimes, now out of Tokyo, is rising in recognition as a talented musician, who has a nice vibe of offering us to download her music by donation. They are making Canadians proud that their particular talent comes from our nest. Check out their work below but first...

I suspect you haven't heard of Braids. They are worth indulging in. Music is indulgence, don't you know. Soak them in. On repeat.
