He says he's awesome, but he's so bad, that on the economy he's the worst prime minister since WWII.

And his campaign is "don't change horses in mid-stream, I'm a great economist, we aren't in a recession, we have a balanced budget and only I can protect you from the terrorist onslaught that wants to kill us all."

All lies.

And here's some data that demonstrates Harper's delusion that he knows anything useful about economics:
